

AWARNNESS ON INDIAN CAPITAL MARKET ORGANISED BY BOMBAY STOCK EXCHANGE AND IGNOU AT UTKAL UNIVERSITY

A joint program arranged by Bombay Stock Exchange and IGNOU on the conference all of the Commerce department of Utkal University on the “Carrier Prospects in Capital Market”. The CEO Bhubaneswar Stock Exchange address the participants, and deliberated on the present economic scenario in the country and future growth of capital market. The program was attended by training head of the Bombay Stock Exchange. Senior Professors and other faculties of the Commerce department. The participants also included post graduate student from the department of Commerce and MFC.

Dated: 12th February, 2011.

A conference on Banking & Finance, Capital Market & Mutual Funds organized by Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Bhubaneswar branch. CEO Bhubaneswar Stock Exchange has been invited to address the inaugural session on the subject of "Financial Investment in Odisha". In his deliberation the CEO emphasizes that without financial literacy it is not possible to take the investment plan in the right direction, he also emphasizes that the state has huge potential in the sector like Mineral, Metal, Infrastructure, Power, Shipping, Tourism, and service sector.

Sri J.N. Gupta, executive director of SEBI, also spoke on the occasion and delivered on the regulators' perspective in Today and Tomorrow market scenario.

The inaugural session was also addressed by Sir J.K. Mahapatra, IAS, Principal Secretary, Department of Finance, Government of Odisha. And he gave the Keynote address.

Date: 16th, February, 2011.

A joint program arranged by Bombay Stock Exchange and IGNOU on the conference all of the Commerce department of Utkal University on the "Carrier Prospects in Capital Market". The CEO Bhubaneswar Stock Exchange address the participants, and deliberated on the present economic scenario in the country and future growth of capital market. The program was attended by training head of the Bombay Stock Exchange. Senior Professors and other faculties of the Commerce department. The participants also included post graduate student from the department of Commerce and MFC.

Dt.13th, March, 2011.

The Bhubaneswar Cuttack Chapter of the institute of ICWA has organized a blood donation camp in their chapter premises Bhubaneswar followed by a talk on the subject " Dimensions of Indian Capita Market – Challenges and Opportunity ".The inaugural function was attended by Managing Director Orissa Power Generation Corporation (OPGC) and the CEO of Bhubaneswar Stock Exchange. After the inaugural session, the CEO Bhubaneswar Stock Exchange gave a talk on the present Indian economic scenario and the future of Indian capital market. His presentation included the history of the Indian capital market, present scenario of the financial sector the stock market and also future growth of the Indian capital market. He also explained the challenges faced by the Indian capital market in the present economic and political scenario. The program was attended by more than 400 students, members of the institute and other professionals.